ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Work was begun yesterday upon the building which is to contain the machinery for the municipal electric light plant in Burlington and it will be completed in December. Mayor Burke states that lights will be in operation in February.

Three meetings were held Sunday by the Rev. George W. Morrow and the Noul Dove Quartette at Poulney, Fair Haven and West Rutland. The total attendance at the three places was 1,170 persons and of these 501 signed total abstinence pledges.

The water commissioners of Newport have engaged a diver from Boston to locate the leak in the water main where it crosses the lake. It is proposed to raise the pipe, later, placing it on spiles with the hope that the trouble that now exists will be relieved.

Robert T. Lincoln and Traveling Secretary Paulson were in Bennington Saturday morning in his private car. Mr. Lincoln was there to note the progress being made in the construction of his house; and also to make application to the village authorities to have his property known as the Hildene farm, taken into the village limits.

The mills and property of the Vermont Clock Co. in Fair Haven have been purchased by the Vermont Green State Co. for $25,000. The new property includes a splendid water power which has stood idle for two years. The new owners will take possession November 1 and plan to use the mills in connection with their slate business.

The sophomores at the University of Vermont have posted notices to the effect that if the freshmen followed out the rules which had been made by them, the hazing would be "cut out." There are enough freshmen breaking the rules so that there is still a lot of hazing taking place. It is, however, much quieter nights than when college first opened.

Ten years in state prison was the sentence imposed upon Emmet Mott of Proctor Saturday morning in county court for committing a criminal assault on Miss Nellie Kelley, a nurse at the Proctor hospital. It took the jury half an hour to reach a verdict. He was in the court room to receive his sentence of 10 years at hard labor in Windsor prison. He showed no emotion.

Alonso Parsons who was accidentally killed at Rensselaer, N. Y., Friday night was the son of Albert Parsons who lives at Lake Bomoseen. Parsons was the fireman on a light engine which was, by mistake, standing on the main track of the New York Central railroad near Albany when the "Empire State Express" crashed into it, killing him almost instantly. Mr. Parsons was a brother of Cooks Parsons, formerly of Rutland. The body will be brought to Castleton for burial.

GRANITEVILLE.

Court Rob Roy, F. of A., will hold a social dance on Saturday evening, Oct. 22, at Foresters' hall. Dancing from 7:30 until 12. Bring your wives, daughters and sweethearts and enjoy a good time, also a chance of winning a fine prize and all for 50 cents. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Elizabeth Connors died Monday morning at 8:30. She was ill only two days. Her age was 94 years. The funeral will be held from the residence of her son, Patrick Connors, on Wednesday morning to St. Sylvester's church at 8 o'clock. She leaves to mourn her loss one son and two daughters, besides a number of grandchildren.

A. A. Smith & Brother this week, Wednesday and Thursday, will have the last exhibition of the season of the newest styles and fabrics for suits, trousers and overcoats direct from New York. The public far and near is respectfully invited to attend. See advertisement.

All parties having legislative petitions are requested to get the same filled up at once and leave them at Marston's corner cigar store or 30 Avers street as soon as possible. Alex Ironside, Sec. C. L. U.

SINFUL NEGLECT

How is it possible for a sane man with good teeth to destroy them through careless neglect? SOZODONT is positively beneficial. It has made the toothbrush habit a real pleasure.

SOZODONT TOOTH POWDER

the natural complement of SOZODONT Liquid, is a beautiful polish, absolutely free from grit and acid. Are you using it? You ought to be.

STRIKE AT DERBY.

Men Claim Superintendent of Work Is a Canadian.

Newport, Oct. 17.—Forty-five men employed on the boat shed which is being erected at West Derby by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., went out on strike this morning owing to the fact that the superintendent is a resident of Canada, it being claimed by the strikers that his being employed here is in violation of the United States immigration laws.

United States Immigration Inspectors McDermott and Foster are conducting an investigation.
